Description

This San Francisco cooler with 35L capacity, made from recycled plastic, is built for convenience and durability. It features double rope handles on each side and lip grip handles with integrated bottle openers for easy lifting and functionality. A bottom water drain with a black lid ensures quick and mess-free emptying. The steel plate (20x10 cm) on the front panel adds a sleek touch, while the lid includes two cup holders and a built-in measuring rule, perfect for outdoor adventures. The insulated body ensures your refreshments stay cool for up to 4 days. Suitable to fit 48 cans.
