Description

Arcane Large Day is a stylish, fully equipped pack that is designed for an active-everyday lifestyle. The fabrics used are 100% recycled and durable enough to stand the test of time, yet still provide a stylish minimalist aesthetic. Tough metal componentry completes the durable design ensuring longevity and woven patch stitched to the front panel provides a unique, eye-catching finish. An internal padded laptop sleeve, internal organisation pockets and 20 litres of space ensure that you're more than equipped to carry everything you need for the day ahead. Externally, the outer zip opens to the full length of the pack on one side, allowing you easy access to your belongings. A scratch free, external horizontal pocket means that essentials are also to hand at all times. This is a pack that has been forged in the wild but tailored to an everyday, active lifestyle.
