Description

The Microlight Down Jacket is a lightweight, low-bulk layer built for year-round mountain adventures. Filled with high-lofting 700FP down and designed with body-mapped baffles, it delivers dependable warmth while maintaining excellent freedom of movement.For the first time, the Microlight features Pertex® Quantum with NetPlus®, made using fully traceable post-consumer recycled fishing nets. The soft, windproof and breathable fabric is durable enough for life on the mountain, while remaining highly packable and easy to layer.A Rab bestseller, the Microlight is a versatile down jacket designed to provide reliable warmth wherever your adventure takes you.
